

Aclipse, LLC acquires Southern Events dba Parker Events

ORLANDO – Aclipse, LLC announced an acquisition to merge business operations, products and services with Southern Events dba Parker Events on May 5, 2019.

The newly merged company, now called Aclipse Premium Tents & Events, will remain headquartered at 4127 Silver Star Road, Orlando, FL 32808. James R. Stillwell Jr., founder and owner of Aclipse, LLC, will serve as president and CEO. Stillwell, who founded Aclipse, LLC in 2003 as a full-service experiential and consumer packaging goods retail marketing firm, has more than 25 years of sales, advertising, marketing and experience with various Fortune 500 companies, including MillerCoors, ESPN Events, BMW and Wilson Sporting Goods. He has also managed large and small corporate and private special events, such as the NFL Pro Bowl and Super Bowl Fan Experiences, HBCU Football Classics and the SXSW Music Festival.

This acquisition brings Aclipse Premium Tents & Events to the forefront of special event and business – transforming the company from just an experiential marketing firm into a one-stop shop for corporate and private special event needs. In addition to the typical tents, tables and chairs that most event companies offer, Aclipse Premium Tents & Events also has Mobile Entertainment and Tailgate packages featuring one-of-a-kind mobile sports bars and executive restrooms not offered anywhere else in the state. With project managers equipped with state-of-the-art designing and event planning software, these packages can be fully customizable based on any client's wants and needs.

“We’re a local family-owned and operated business,” Stillwell said, “and providing exceptional products and services, and managing, maintaining and building customer relationships remain the top priority for Aclipse Premium Tents & Events.”

Aclipse Premium Tents & Events specializes in festivals, concerts, sporting events, air and sea shows, private and corporate events, religious functions, nonprofit, hospitality, government groups and local municipalities. The company's Central Florida headquarters and operations are centrally located to allow accessibility to adjacent regions in the state.

Regardless of what stage you are in planning your next event, Aclipse Premium Tents & Events can bring your vision to life.
